FESTIVAL 2019

The BC Registered Music Teachers, South Fraser Branch welcomes you to Festival 2019. We celebrate the students, teachers and parents who have put extra effort, care and attention to each performance we will hear these two weeks. We are especially pleased to welcome our adjudicators Michael Noble, Miranda Wong, Bernie Duerksen and Jean Brown and look forward to the musical expertise they will share.

Festivals promote performance excellence, intellectual challenge and community. We hope you will take time to greet other students and share new ideas.

Our adjudicators will write separate comments for each participant and work with individual students at the piano. They will grade each student in the following categories:

Bronze
80% - 83%

Silver
84% - 87%

Gold
88% and up

All qualifying students who receive Gold Standings will be invited to perform at the Celebration Recitals.

Thank you for taking the time to attend this event.

Bravo to each performer! We wish you every musical success.

PERFORMANCE GUIDELINES AND CONDUCT DURING FESTIVAL AND CELEBRATION RECITALS

- Each performer will provide the adjudicator with an original copy of the music to be performed. Photocopies may not be used. Music books may not be shared in the same class.
- The performer's name should be on the front of the music.
- A page marker should be placed on the first page of the piece to be played.
- In the music, the bars should be numbered at the start of each line.
- Late arrivals that are not present when called upon to perform will be called again at the end of the class performances before the oral adjudications begin. If not present at that time, the performer will be considered a no-show and will not be permitted to play at a later time. There will be no fee refund.
- As a courtesy to performers, please:

DO NOT BRING FOOD OR DRINK INTO THE FESTIVAL

DO NOT TALK OR WHISPER DURING PERFORMANCES OR ADJUDICATIONS

ENTER AND EXIT ONLY BETWEEN PERFORMANCES

- No one is allowed to play the pianos outside of class times.
- Students should dress in appropriate performance attire. Avoid jeans, shorts, T-shirts with slogans, sweats, hoodies, and bare-midriiffs.
- If very young children attend the Festival classes or the Celebration Recitals, they will need to be quiet and not make noise or move around.
- If you have questions about the festival, please speak with your teacher, or look around for one of the festival helpers. DO NOT approach the adjudicators to discuss Festival matters.
- Recording equipment and photography of any kind is NOT ALLOWED in the festival classes.

JEAN BROWN

Junior Festival Adjudicator

Jean Brown has been a piano teacher in the Greater Vancouver area for over thirty-five years. She has consistently developed students from a young age who have matured to regularly receive accolades placing first in the province and within the top 3 nation-wide.

Jean is a certified Suzuki Piano Teacher and has been teaching Suzuki method to young children for the past 30 years. The essentials of the Suzuki method are an early beginning, parental participation, and memorization by listening and repetition. Jean has had the pleasure of having received instruction from the esteemed Jean Lyons and Lorne Watson, among others, in teachings regarding performance and instruction.

Jean has a rich history of involvement within the musical community, serving as an executive for the Alumni of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto for several years. She has been involved in the adjudication of various music festivals throughout the lower mainland, and regularly organizes local piano concerts for her students' benefit. In past years Jean has taught at the Langley Community School of Music, and she presently teaches at the Jean Lyons

School of Music in Vancouver as well as at her private studio in Port Moody.

Jean Brown has had several profoundly outstanding students throughout her career as a piano teacher. They have represented Vancouver, Coquitlam and the Fraser Valley in the Provincial Festival of the Arts, with several First-Place winners across the province. Her students have also represented Vancouver in the National Finals of the Canadian Music Competitions in various cities across Canada including Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Edmonton, Joliette, and Vancouver.

Jean has twice taught students, in 1991 and 2016, who have received the Gold Medal for the highest ARCT mark in Canada. In 2016, her student was recognized as the “Young Artist for 2017” after placing First in the Registered Music Teachers national competition for ages 25 and under. Many more of Jean’s students have been recognized with other awards and examination results from the Royal Conservatory of Music, including several Gold Medals for various grades.

BERNARD DUERKSEN

Bernard Duerksen's training includes studies with pianists, Peter Katin, Jane Coop, Robin Wood, John-Paul Bracey, and composers Peter-Paul Koprowski and Gerhard Wuensch. He is experienced in solo, chamber and concerto work. In 1991 he was honoured to work with Jean Coulthard in preparation of the world premiere performance of Image Terrestre. Coulthard described him as "a splendid pianist" and the noted composer and critic David Gordon Duke described the performance as "radiant". In the mid 1990's Mr. Duerksen learned the 32 sonatas of Beethoven and performed many of them, as well as piano concertos 3 and 4. His six-year collaboration with baritone Glen Harder culminated with an invitation to perform Schubert's Die Winterreise at the 1993 International Schubert Conference and Festival at the University of Victoria. He performs regularly with musicians from the VSO. He has made recordings for CBC radio and is also an accomplished organist.

Bernard Duerksen is a graduate of UBC with a MMus degree, and is on faculty at the VSO School of Music. He has been actively teaching and adjudicating for 35 years and his students have won many awards and scholarships. Duerksen's students have played in masterclasses for John Kimura Parker, Louis Lortie, Stephen Hough, Yefim Bronfman, Jeffrey Kahane, Joyce Yang and Angela Cheng. Noted pedagogue, Edward Parker stated "Bernard Duerksen can teach anything to anybody".

Fun facts: Bernard Duerksen is an avid runner and placed fourth in the Terry Fox run in 1998. In 2012, Mr. Duerksen was the hand double for John Lithgow playing Bach in the movie Rise of the Planet of the Apes.

MICHAEL NOBLE

Intermediate & Senior

Festival Adjudicator

Michael Noble has developed an international reputation as an “astonishing” (Het Nieuwsblad) and versatile pianist whose performances and initiatives have engrossed audiences across Asia, Europe, and the Americas.

Since his first recital at the age of six, he has won prizes in numerous competitions. Michael has been called “a pianist to remember” by Het Nieuwsblad, and his playing has been hailed as “elegant, stylish, and powerful” (Peninsula Reviews).

Michael has performed in renowned venues, including Carnegie Hall, Orchestra Hall, and the Jewish Museum in Warsaw. He appears regularly at festivals including the Gentsche Festspiele (Belgium), the Kwadrofonik Festival (Poland), and the Thailand International Composition Festival. Additionally, Michael has been featured as soloist with the Monterey and Tulsa Symphonies, and the Idyllwild Arts Academy Alumni Orchestra, among others.

Michael obtained his B.M. in Piano Performance and B.A. in English

Literature cum laude from the Eastman School of Music and University of Rochester respectively. He received his M.M. and M.M.A. at the Yale School of Music and is now a candidate for the D.M.A. there.

Highlights of the season include a performance on the Dame Myra Hess Memorial Concert Series, performances at Spectrum in Brooklyn as part of Frederic Rzewski’s 80th birthday celebration, and engagements throughout Austria, Belgium, Canada, and the United States.

Michael teaches at Rutgers University’s Mason Gross Extension Division of the Arts and Avenues: The World School in New York City.

For more information, please visit michael-noble.net.

MIRANDA WONG

*Intermediate & Senior
Festival Adjudicator*

Miranda Wong is ever passionate about the music of Bach and ever curious about the complexities of the contemporary idiom. Her solo career has taken her across Canada, the United States, England, and often before the microphones of CBC Radio. In the ten years as pianist of the contemporary music ensemble, Aventa, her performances have embraced world premieres (notably chamber works by the eminent composers, Peter Maxwell Davies and Michael Finnissy), and appearances at music festivals in Europe and North America. She holds degrees and diplomas from the University of Victoria; the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, London; and the Peabody Conservatory. Robin Wood, Leonard Shure, and Leon Fleisher sit as the triumvirate of her musical education and inspiration.

The wish to share in discovering the small, and large, ideas that connect life to music ensures a place for teaching in her professional activities. Miranda Wong currently serves on the faculty of the School of Music at the University of British Columbia.

Junior Festival Artwork Contest Winner

Olivia Lin, age 10

My name is Olivia Lin and I am ten years old. I love playing piano, drawing, (my favorite is butterflies, as you can see) painting with watercolors, and reading. My favorite book series are Percy Jackson, Keeper of the Lost Cities, and School for Good and Evil. I love hanging out with my friends and discussing literature – I am a bookworm!

Senior Festival Artwork Contest Winner

Julia Wu, age 13

My name is Julia Wu, I'm 13, and I attend Fraser Heights Secondary. I have been playing piano for as long as I could remember, and I'm currently studying piano under my amazing teacher Megumi Otani. I enjoy playing songs from movies, and in spare time I also like to listen to music, draw, hang out with my friends, and go to the mall. I'm really honored to have had my art chosen, and it was very fun to make.
